NIYYAH OF FAST

اللَّهُمَّ أَصُومُ غَدَّاً لَكَ فَاغْفِرْ لِي
مَا قَدَّمْتُ وَمَا أَخْرَجْتُ

O ALLAH! I OBSERVE FAST
FOR YOU TOMORROW,
FORGIVE ALL MY PAST AND FUTURE SINS.

THINGS THAT BREAK THE FAST

- To eat, drink or to indulge in cohabitation intentionally
- To burn agarbatti (incense) and inhale its smoke
- If water goes down the throat while gargling
- To vomit mouthful intentionally
- To swallow something edible, equal to or bigger than a grain of gram, which was stuck between the teeth. However if it was taken out of the mouth, then swallowed, it will break the fast whether it is similar or bigger than the size of a gram
- To drop oil or medicine in the nose
- To swallow the blood from the gums with saliva. However if the blood is less than the saliva and its taste is not felt then the fast will not break
- Smoking or snuffing
- To eat or drink forgetting one is fasting and thereafter, thinking that the fast is broken to eat or drink again
- To apply medicine to the anus
- For women to apply medicine to their urinary organs

SUNNAHS IN RAMADHAN

- To observe taraweeh
- To increase the recitation of the Holy Quran
- To observe the itkaaf during the last ten days of Ramadhan

Ramadhaan

رمضان

By the will of the Al-Mighty works on the ground and first floor are almost complete. However there is a long way to go before completion.

Alhamdulillah, since last Ramadhan we have almost completed both floors as well as getting the mens community room ready. The girls madrasah has also moved away from the old youth centre, this could not have been possible without the help and sacrifice of all our sathees. We humbly appeal for the good people of Thornbury to come forward and help by giving their time, advice, wealth and their du'aas.

RAMADHAN 1447

Things which break the fast.

- Application of any liquid form of medicine or oil into nose, ear mouth and anus.
 - A mouthful of self induced vomit.
 - Swallowing any substance or object which is not normally consumed as food or medicine, e.g. pebbles, paper, a coin, etc.
 - If one is forcefully fed and the food is swallowed.
 - Swallowing vomit intentionally, though it is a small amount.
 - Swallowing food, the size of a chana (half of a chick pea) which was stuck in the teeth. If the piece was removed from the mouth and then swallowed, the fast will be broken, regardless of size.
 - Deliberately inhaling the smoke of a cigarette, incense etc.
 - Ejaculation due to sexual activity or love plays, even if there was no intercourse.
 - Saliva mingled with blood, if the taste of blood is tasted when swallowing.
 - Eating deliberately after having eaten mistakenly.
 - Eating at the beginning of Fajr with the misunderstanding that there is still time.
 - Opening the fast before sunset, whether it is due to dense fog, clouds or incorrect time.
 - Water slipping down the throat whilst gargling or swallowing toothpaste/powder.
 - Medical tests undertaken by a woman in which an instrument is internally inserted.
 - Eating after vomiting, with misunderstanding that fast has broken.
 - Injection of medicine which reaches stomach directly.
- Note: In all the above cases it is necessary to make Qadha (to fulfill or compensate a fast).*
- Deliberately eating or drinking anything.
 - Sexual intercourse even if there was no ejaculation.
 - Deliberately eating with misunderstanding that application of surma (eye kohl) or oil had broken the fast.

Note 1: In these three circumstances Kaffara will be necessary, jointly with the Qadha.

Note 2: Kaffara is the penalty imposed by the Shariah for the deliberate nullification of the saum of Ramadhan, the Kaffara is a fast of 60 consecutive days without missing a single day in between. Single day missed will make it invalid. A person who is unable to carry out the Kaffara due to ill health or old age will have to feed 60 poor people. Each person should be given two full meals for the day or the amount in cash, equal to sadqah fitr. Instead of cash, flour may be given (approx. 2 kg of bread flour).

Things which do not break the fast.

- Eating, drinking or indulging in sexual relations forgetfully. This means that at the time of committing these acts, one does not remember the fast. However, if after realizing, the act is continued the fast will no longer be valid.
- Unintentionally inhaling or swallowing smoke, dust or micro insects.
- Water entering the ears.
- Vomiting, regardless of the amount. This refers to vomiting which is not self induced.
- Vomiting, less than a mouthful if it was self induced.
- Massaging oil into the hair or body.
- Application of surma or medicine to the eye. Even if the effects or particles appear in the saliva or whilst blowing the nose.
- Smelling anything fragrant.
- A food particles less than a size of a chana becoming unstuck from the teeth and slipping down the throat.
- Having a wet dream.
- Using a miswak.
- Tasting before serving an ill-tempered person e.g. husband who shows his unjustified wrath when food has not been prepared to his satisfaction.
- The injection of medicine which does not reach directly to the stomach.
- A small amount of vomit running down the throat, with-out control.
- Insertion of medicine through the urine passage of a male.

Things which are Makrooh (undesirable) during fasting.

There are some things which do not break the fast, but are makrooh. Which bring about decrease in the reward of the fast. It is therefore necessary to avoid committing makrooh things.

- Using toothpaste/powder.
- To gargle the mouth when making wudhu.
- To unnecessarily taste something.
- Delaying the fard Ghush without a valid reason.
- Backbiting, lying, swearing, tale telling, fighting, etc.
- Caressing, fondling or kissing the wife.
- Gathering and swallowing of saliva.
- Participating in un-Islamic activities such as watching films and playing games such as chess, draughts, monopoly etc.

Things which allow exemptions from fasting.

- Old age, which makes a person very weak.
- Life threatening illness or illness which will worsen because of fasting.
- Breast-feeding, if the child is dependant thereon and if the fast causes the milk to dry.
- Pregnancy, if the health or life of either is threatened.
- Journey of a minimum 48 miles, and a stay over for less than fifteen days. However, if a person can fast, they should not miss the opportunity of Ramadhan.
- Haidh (menses) and nifas (post-natal blood) the fast is not valid in these conditions.

Ramadan

1447 - 2026

We are nearly there Inshallah!

With your support and generosity, we are nearing the completion of the new 'four-level' build. We are currently engaged in phase V - the final level of the new build. We will then move onto phase VI which will be the buildings lift system, and finally phase VII, which will include the car park and associated work.

Dua For Breaking Fast At The Time Of Iftaar:

اللهم إني لك صفت وبك أمنت
وعلى رزقك أفحذت

O Allah, I fasted for You and I believe in You and I break my fast with Your sustenance

Allahumma inni laka sumtu wa bika aamanu [wa 'alayka tawakkaltu]
Wa 'ala rizq-ika afterthu

Dua For Keeping Fast At The Time Of Sehri (Niyaat):

وَبِصَوْمَ غَدْ نُؤْتِنَ
مِنْ شَهْرِ رَمَضَانَ

I intend to keep fast tomorrow for the month of Ramadan
Wa bisawmi ghadim nawalytu min shahri ramadan

THE MONTH OF RAMADAN

Ramadān is the ninth month of the Islamic calendar and is the most blessed month for Muslims, in which the Qur'an was revealed. It is the month of fasting, worship, and spiritual purification, where Muslims abstain from food and drink from dawn until sunset to build taqwā and discipline. During Ramadān, believers increase prayer, charity, Qur'an recitation, and repentance, seeking Allah's mercy and forgiveness. It includes Laylat al-Qadr, the Night of Decree, which is greater in reward than a thousand months. Ramadān strengthens faith, community, and the connection between the servant and Allah.

Şadaqatul fitr is an obligation upon every free Muslim who owns the value of nīshāb beyond basic necessity, on behalf of oneself, one's indigent minors and one's adults who lack capacity. [al-Durr al-Mukhtār]

The Hadīths quantify şadaqatul fitr with four commodities: a ṣā' of dates, barley [al-Bukhārī, Muslim], and raisins [Sunan al-Baihaqī], and half a ṣā' of wheat [Sunan al-Tirmidhī, Musnad Bazzār, Majmā' al-Zawā'id, Sunan al-Dāraqutnī]. Whilst some narrations do mention barley and wheat flours, it is more precautionary that their value is not less than their whole grains. [Radd al-Muhtār]*

One may give any of the four commodities or the value thereof.

[Radd al- Muhtār]

One ṣā' is equivalent to 3.184272g

[Jawāhir al-Fiqh]

Şadaqatul fitr according to the local rates of each of the four commodities of medium quality are as follows:

Whole wheat = £4.00

Whole barley = £6.10

Khudri dates = £14.15

Safawi dates = £24.70

Medjoul dates = £35.40

Raisins = £13.60

One may give according to any of the above values.

The rate of fidya for not fasting is the same as that of şadaqatul fitr.

* As flour tends to be cheaper than whole grain, the rates for flour have not been provided above.

 Please note that prices of these commodities may vary depending on brand, quality and other considerations, resulting in rates different from those stated.

In houses (mosques) which Allāh has ordered to be raised (to be cleaned, and to be honoured), in them His Name is remembered. Therein glorify Him (Allah) in the mornings and in the afternoons or the evenings. Men who are not distracted by buying or selling (business) from the Remembrance of Allāh (with heart and tongue), nor from performing As-Salāh, nor from giving the Zakāt. They fear a Day when hearts and eyes will be overturned (out of the horror of the torment of the Day of Resurrection). (Quran)
